

ING THEIR DUTY.

Barre Readers Are Learning
The Duty of The Kidneys.

When the blood is the kidney's they fail to do this the kidney sick.
Lancie and many kidney ills following trouble, diabetes, and kidney pills cure them all.
See people endorse our claim.

Mr. L. Cummings of 80 Elm street, Barre, Vt., says: "About three years ago I began to have serious attacks of kidney trouble. The worst symptom was sharp pain just over my hips which as if I had a stitch in my back.
These attacks I could not sleep and could hardly get about the house. If I caught cold it settled across my back and aggravated the trouble.
I tried a good many remedies but nothing gave me so much relief as Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at A. Drown's drug store. They relieved the pain and strengthened my back and proved in every way a valuable kidney medicine. It is six months since I have had any backache and I am beginning to think that the cure is going to be permanent."

sons arrived from Beaver, Pa., on Wednesday night.

A very pleasant time was the result of the Good Templars social with Mr. evening. About 25 were present and the evening was a success socially and financially.

The secretary of the Eastern Star received news of the illness of the entire family of Alfred E. House, D. G.
Patron, of Williamstown, and for this reason he is not expected to be present at the meeting on Thursday. The Deputy Grand Matron has also decided not to come, but the usual business meeting, followed by the initiatory work, will be held.

ing a bequest of $100,000, less the in-$100,000 each were given to various institutions.

The sum is given to Yale without

Good for Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect in the Delbert building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c

POSTMASTER SHOT BURGLAR BUT TWO ESCAPED.

Three Men Had Blown Safe in West Nyack, N. Y. Office; Were Gathering Coins When Mr. Smith Came.

Nyack, N. Y., March 19.—Postmaster David J. Smith of West Nyack made a single-handed attack early yesterday on three burglars who had dynamited the post-office safe. One of the burglars may die. The other escaped. Postmaster Smith was not injured. The third man, who has been brought to a hospital here, gave his name as Edward Murphy, aged 35 years. Beyond that he would tell nothing about himself.

Mr. Smith lives directly over the postoffice. He was aroused by the sound of an explosion, and, after arming himself, went down stairs. He saw three men gathering up coins which had been scattered over the office floor by the explosion. The burglars stood their ground for a moment but a shot from the postmaster's revolver sent them scurrying for safety. One of the men was too late, however. The first shot had struck him fatally, and all three were reaching the threshold. The two robbers who escaped got away with about $4 in cash.

NEW LEXOW FOR NEW YORK?

Move to Investigate The City Departments.

Albany, N. Y., March 19.—A summer and fall legislative investigation of New York city departments is continued by Republican state leaders.
Senator Owen Cassidy has introduced a current resolution calling for the appointment of a special committee of senators and assemblymen to look into the financial condition of New York city, especially with regard to a proposed legislation affecting the city debt limit. The resolution also permits this special committee to investigate any and all matters and departments connected with the city government, and it is under this clause of the resolution that the proposed Lexow of New York city, especially with regard to a proposed legislation affecting the city debt
limit. The resolution also permits
this special committee to investigate
any and all matters and departments
connected with the city government,

tion that the proposed Lexow of New York city, especially with regard to a pro-

AN ISLAND IN THE AIR.

One of the Wonders of Prehistoric Pueblo Architecture.

Three miles south of the Mesa En-cantada, in Mexico, is a splendid specimen of fantastic erosion—an "island" in the air, a rock with overhanging sides nearly 400 feet high, seventy nearly in area on the fairly level top.
Indicated with compasses, great bays, notched with dizzy chasms. The greater part of the island overhangs the sea like a huge mushroom, and on the top stands a town which for artistic charm, etiological interest and romantic history has no peer.

This little town of Anconima is one of the most perfect types of the prehistoric Pueblo architecture. Most of the houses remain of the type invented when every house must be a fort. One climbed a ladder to his first roof and pulled up the ladder at night, living on the second and third floors and using the ground floor as a cellar.
Against enemies armed only with bows and arrows this was a fair defense.
Comfort had to be sacrificed to safety.
Nothing except the eagle sought such inaccessible crannies as these victims of their own civilization.

STILL BALK THE
ORIENTAL BANK.

Carnegie Trust as Receiver Delays Handing Over The Assets.

New York, March 19.—Comed for the Oriental bank and trust deposits.
The state superintendent of banking yesterday called upon the Carnegie Trust company, which was formerly a receiver of the bank, to deliver its books and assets to the representatives of the superintendent of banks. Notwithstanding that the court yesterday ordered the receivership dissolved, President Dickinson of the Carnegie Trust company declined to surrender the bank's assets until the attorney general had decided whether to appeal the case. Directors of the Oriental bank yesterday signed a contract under which the Metropolitan company is to liquidate the bank's affairs and pay off its depositors.

N. Y. Central Cuts Dividend.

New York, March 19.—New York Central directors yesterday reduced the dividend on their stock from 6 per cent. to 5 per cent. The road is understood to be earning at the rate of 1 1/2 per cent. on its common stock, and the declaration of this large dividend caused heavy selling in Wall street, where the action was considered unconservative.

OPERA HOUSE NOTES.

J. M. Hamilton.

J. M. Hamilton of the Imperial Scots Concert Co. is admitted to be Scotland's greatest tenor. Copied by many but equaled by none, he holds the records for all the principal Highland gatherings and concerts in Scotland, and has appeared before the humblest citizen in the country, as well as before the highest, including Louis, Dukes, Earls, Chiefs of the different Clans, Prime Ministers and Royalty. He sings his patriotic and Jacobite songs in full Highland costume. Printed words fails to give an adequate idea of the powers which this golden-voiced tenor possesses to ravish the senses—he must be heard. When he sings through the strains of the "Mair plaine" of our old Scotch songs, nearer than an hand is raised to the "Mair plaine" tear, and in the martial songs of Scotland he compels a quicker pulse, a thrilling bosom and to the awakened imagination the flashing of claymores. This is Mr. Hamilton's first visit to America. At the opera house next Monday night.

Things Theatrical.

George Ade is writing a comic opera to be called "The Fair Co-ed."

Richard Carle has engaged Jeannette Lowrie for one of the leading roles in "Mary's Lamb."

Charles Dalton has been engaged to support Mrs. Patrick Campbell. Mrs.
Beerholm Tree is being featured in her company.

Virginia Harned will play a stock company engagement this summer in St. Louis and will try a new play, with the idea of using it for her starting tour next season.

Albert Brunning, who appears as Mortensgaard, the radical editor, in Mrs. Fiske's production of "Rosmer-sholm," is a German and played his first role in English with Edwin Booth when that actor made his first Berlin appearance.

GOT HIS MONEY.

The New Depositor Made Quick Work With His Check Book.

During a financial stringency a Swedish farmer in one of the middle west states had sold some hogs on the local market and upon receiving his check in payment immediately went to the local bank to realize on his sale.
Upon presentation of the check the banker said to him, "Do you wish the money on this check?"

"Well, I think I just so well take him," was the quick reply.

"You really want the money?"

"Yah; I think I take the money."

"But do you really need the money?"

"Well, no; I don't exactly need him, but I think I take the money."

"Well," said the banker, "if you really want the money of course I will give it to you, but I thought if you did not need it perhaps you might open an account and deposit the money and then check against it as you needed it."

"Den ven I send my checks here you will refuse to pay dem."

"Oh, no, we won't. If you open the account, we will pay your checks whenever they come in."

This seemed assuring to the Swede, and he said, "Well, if you pay my checks, den I open de account." And the account was opened and passbook and check book handed to the new customer.

Half an hour later a close friend of the new depositor appeared at the cashier's window and presented a check signed by his friend for the full amount of the deposit, which was promptly paid by the banker without comment.

In about an hour the Swede appeared, and, walking up to the cashier's window, handed the banker his check book minus only one check, with the remark, "Well, I don't think I need him any more."—Youth's Companion.

UNFINISHED BOOKS.

Authors Who Died Leaving Stories
Partly Written.

Many writers, including the famous Ouida, have died leaving behind them unfinished books. One of the best known is, of course, Dickens' "The Mystery of Edwin Drood," a remarkably clever story, and one showing no signs of diminishing vitality, although he was actually at work upon it up to within a few hours of his death.

Dickens' great rival, Thackeray, again, left behind him not one only, but two unfinished stories. One of these, "Deeds Deval," promised to rank with his best work. Unfortunately, however, he had completed only seven chapters when he was stricken down.

Scott, too, left a tale unended—"The Sleege of Malta"—written while he was on his last futile journey in search of health. This work has never been published, although more than two-thirds of it was completed at the time of his death.

Then there was "St. Ives," left unfinished by R. L. Stevenson, as was "Zeph," by Helen Jackson, and "Blind Love," by Wilkie Collins. Buedle never completed his "History of Civilization," although he toiled at it for twenty years.

Among famous poems that were never completed mention may be made of Byron's "Don Juan," Keats' "Hyperion," Coleridge's "Christabel" and Gray's "Agrippina." Spenser's "Faerie Queen," too, is no more than a fragment, although a colossal one.

Lastly, there ought to be included Ben Jonson's beautiful unfinished pastoral, "The Sad Shepherd," found by his literary executors among his papers after his death and published in its incompleteness.—Pearson's Weekly.

SIRENS AND SONS.

William Dawson, aged eighty-two, of Vineand, N. J., said he got married to set the young men a good example.

Senator Merry Del Val, a brother of Cardinal Rafael Merry Del Val, pontiffical secretary of state, has been appointed Spanish minister at Tangier.

Luther B. Little, secretary and treasurer of the Republican state committee of New York, is so eloquent a speaker that he has gained for himself the title of "Daniel Webster No. 2."

Representative Joseph Warren Keller of Ohio and Uncle Joe Cannon are the "old boys" of the house, and they are alike in that their age does not show itself excepting in their looks.
Both are as spry as youngsters.

It is a curious coincidence that Canada's greatest railroad man, Sir William Van Horne, is a native of the United States and that the greatest railroad builder of the United States, James J. Hill, is a native of the Dominion.

Commander Peary is likely soon to be a very rich man, as he has quietly purchased sixteen desirable islands in Greenland.
